For now, let's just stay in the space of the human heart. Becoming one with its internal space The heart is where the divine is experienced in the most personal way, as feeling itself. In the absence of any particular emotion, what remains is that feeling alone. Just that. Here, you are not feeling the divine.

Divine is that feeling. Divine is feeling itself as our human heart in the form, in the manifestation of our human heart. And it is here from the realm of transcendence, and it is here from the realm of transcendence, from the beyond the divine enters actually here. Saying, I am. And I am here. And I am experiencing myself as your heart. So your heart is actually mine. Thank you. We are coming to the end of this retreat, coming to a closure of this retreat, in fact.

But it is all just a beginning of something beautiful and so significant. I hope that your heart has opened more and you are able to enter it deeper and you are able to shed the burden of the past pain to a significant degree, so you can feel lighter and more free, and that some of the obstacles on the path has been removed, so that you can truly focus on your further evolution, evolution beyond suffering, evolution of your life. And I hope you will not lose from your sight. Your purpose. Not getting distracted, but remaining completely devoted to the growth of the soul within yourself. Because you, becoming more and more happy, is all that matters. For me, for human, for you, and for the divine. This is why you are here.

This is why you reincarnated. This is why you are in this body. To reach fulfillment. It has been hard, but it is a small price to pay for what is waiting for you. That is certain. As we end, we would like to extend our thanks and gratitude to Human, Shiva, God, God, whose children we are, our true parent. And we promise not to waste their help, but to use our power, our resources, our dedication, our commitment. To grow as spiritual beings, as we are supposed to, infinitely. Crossing over dimensions of God, exploring the mystery of Him, as He is exploring the mystery of Himself through us. And that's joy. Pure joy.
